STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS FOR YOU...

- * What God knows about you is far more important than what others think about you!
- * The devil knows your name but calls you by your sin; God knows your sin but calls you by your name!
~ Ricardo Sanchez
- * Pray hardest when it is hardest to pray!

Martin Luther on the HOLY SPIRIT: (In his exposition of John 15:26-27 Luther calls attention to the fact that according to Scripture the Holy Spirit is obviously a divine Person.)

Who Is the Holy Spirit? That the Holy Spirit is a Person distinct and different from the Father and the Son is also sufficiently indicated by the fact that He says: "The Comforter, whom I will send," again: "Which proceeds from the Father" (John 15:26). Yet He is the same true, real, one God, because He is to do works which God alone does, such as enlightening the hearts within, bringing people to true knowledge, beginning, arousing, and strengthening faith in them, comforting consciences and keeping them undismayed against the terror of the devil and of all creatures, etc. This is strong and certainly enough to uphold the article of the divine Being of the Holy Spirit.

Thank you!

We would like to thank our Sunday school teachers, nursery workers and other Christian educators for volunteering their time and energy to further the message of Christ through teaching at Holy Trinity.

Save the Date: Holy Trinity Lutheran School will be having their annual garage sale June 15th & 16th (8am-2pm). This is a great fund raiser for our school so start cleaning out those closets. Item drop-off will begin on Thursday, June 14th at 8am.
