STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS FOR YOU...

- * We do not inherit the land from our ancestors;
we borrow it from our children! ~ Native American Proverb
- * In necessary things, unity; in disputed things, liberty;
in all things, charity! ~ Rev. Richard Baxter
- * I believe that every right implies a responsibility;
every opportunity an obligation;
every possession a duty! ~ John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Martin Luther on DEATH. On this Memorial Day weekend it might be worthwhile to consider Luther's exposition of Ecclesiastes 3:3.

"My Times Are In Thy Hand" (Psalm 31:15). We do not die, be our situation ever so dangerous and desperate, until our hour has come. Why, then, do we fear death? You cannot live longer or die sooner than God has decreed... Astrologers attribute the hour of death to the stars, others to luck. But Holy Scripture attributes it to God, who has fixed our span of life and the moment of our death. To Him your dying of a great or a small wound is a matter of no concern. He confounds all human wisdom and plans. And it is a great comfort to the Christians to know that death does not lie in the power of tyrants nor in the hand of any creature. They, therefore, do not greatly worry about death but die like children, whenever it pleases the Lord.
