STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS FOR YOU...

- * Some people want justice – for someone else! – B. Cockburn
- * Too often we hand folks over to God's mercy, but show none ourselves! – George Eliot
- * We evaluate others with godlike justice, but we want them to evaluate us with godlike compassion! – Sydney J. Harris

Martin Luther on THE CHRISTIAN. (In his 1533 sermon on John 8:46-59, Luther said that a Christian is not greatly affected by the enmity of the world.)

What the Christian Thinks of the World's Hatred. Christians must suffer very much because the devil and the world are bitterly hostile to them. Therefore they must risk and endanger body and life, possessions and honor. But how are they able to bear all these things and be patient besides? Only by continuing to cling to the Word and saying: "Let things go as they go; I am not of this world but of God; were it otherwise, the world would deal differently with me. But I would rather have it hate and injure me in every way than have it love me for not being of God..." Over the heart that is so minded all sorts of temptations and disagreeable experiences pass, as the clouds in the sky pass over us or the birds in the air, which croak at us a bit and then leave us undisturbed.
