STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS FOR YOU...

- * We can do no great things;
only small things with great love. ~ Mother Teresa
- * Wisdom is the sunlight of the soul. ~ German Proverb
- * Wrinkles should only indicate where smiles have been.
~ Mark Twain

Martin Luther on THE CHRISTIAN. (In Luther's 1538 explanation John 3:11, he applied it to the Christian approach to death using Jesus dialogue with Nicodemus.)

The Christian Knows the Mystery of Death. Many people have been concerned and anxious to know where that dwelling or habitation of ours may possibly be to which we go when we die; and many prominent people have lost their minds because they did not know. Therefore men have coined the proverb: "I live, how long I do not know; Must die, but know not when I go; Pass on, but know not where 'twill be. My cheerfulness surprises me!" And true it is, a non-Christian cannot know it at all, but a Christian must judge differently of the matter. He has a faithful Guide to lead him over, and he follows his Leader and Guide, Christ. He tells him what to do, saying: "Listen to what we say, for we know what we are saying. Our statements are the truth. Trust Me. Surrender yourself to Me. Lie down in the garment I have wrapped about your head. I will bear you safely across." Now if you do this, you will not be deceived by Him... Only in Christ is that way to heaven placed before us which the divine Word sets forth to us.
