STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS FOR YOU...

- * We must accept finite disappointment, but we must never lose infinite hope! ~ Martin Luther King, Jr.
- * Happiness is having a large, loving, caring, close-knit family... in another city! ~ George Burns
- * It is our choices that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities! ~ J. K. Rowling

Martin Luther on FAITH. (In Luther's 1538 sermon on John 3:19, he emphasizes the necessary connection, yet important distinction, between faith and good works.)

The Faith That Justifies Also Sanctifies. Saint John also constantly introduces the thought that faith must be true and not false. For there are many who do confess these two points that Christ is true God and our Savior; but their confession remains mere froth on the tongue. There is no sincerity in their heart, no truth, but merely a fleeting fancy. For this reason Saint John insists that faith be genuine and active in good works and that it be seen through works. For, although faith is enough for salvation and I obtain the kingdom of heaven through faith, good works must nonetheless follow, or my faith is not genuine. For faith is so serious a matter that it does not remain without good works!
