REFORMATION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 25, 2026

WELCOME TO WORSHIP ON THIS REFORMATION SUNDAY. Today we mark the anniversary of the date Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses on indulgences on the church door in Wittenberg, Germany, October 31, 1517, which ended up sparking a Reformation that transformed the whole Christian church. The Reformation sought to correct the abuses that had crept into the medieval church and recover an emphasis on the five "solas" - Christ alone, grace alone, faith alone, Scripture alone, to the glory of God alone - that are the only solid foundation for our salvation. We celebrate the legacy of the Reformation that gave rise to our Lutheran tradition, and carry that tradition forward in its continued relevance for a world that needs the saving grace of Jesus.

About our Sermon Series: The Gospel we inherited is not a relic from the Reformation. It's the living truth of Jesus Christ, and it is still strong enough to carry the Church into the next generation. So let's bring the PAST FWRD that anchors our Church and comforts our souls in Christ Jesus.

About the Music: We All Believe in One True God was one of the earliest Lutheran hymns, written by Martin Luther in Wittenberg around 1524. Luther adapted both tune and text from an existing medieval chant, expanding the original into a three-verse Trinitarian paraphrase of the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. It mirrors the exposition of the Apostles' Creed in the Small Catechism by connecting the Creed's statements about God with how they apply to our own lives. The handbell choir will play an arrangement of this tune before we sing it as the message hymn.

Pray: Almighty God, in Your love for us while we were still sinners You provided Yourself the redemption for our sins through the precious blood of Your Son shed on the cross. May we cling in faith to that redemption, won not by our own righteousness but by His, that trusting in Your mercy we may at last be brought to the eternal rest of Your kingdom; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

PRELUDE EIN FESTE BURG IST UNSER GOTT (A MIGHTY FORTRESS IS OUR GOD), BWV 720 - J.S. BACH

Processional Hymn

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God | LSB 656
v. 3 choir only (setting by John Ferguson)

+ Please turn and face the cross as it is processed into the sanctuary during the hymn. +

1. A mighty fortress is our God,
A trusty shield and weapon;
He helps us free from ev'ry need
That hath us now o'ertaken.
The old evil foe
Now means deadly woe;
Deep guile and great might
Are his dread arms in fight;
On earth is not his equal.

2. With might of ours can naught be done,
Soon were our loss effected;
But for us fights the Valiant One,
Whom God Himself elected.
Ask ye, Who is this?
Jesus Christ it is.
Of Sabaoth Lord,
And there's none other God;
He holds the field forever.

Choir: 3.
Though devils all the world should fill,
All eager to devour us,
We tremble not, we fear no ill;
They shall not overpow'r us.
This world's prince may rage,
In fierce war engage.
He can harm us none,
He's judged; the deed is done;
One little word can fell him.

4. The Word they still shall let remain
Nor any thanks have for it;
He's by our side upon the plain
With His good gifts and Spirit.
And take they our life,
Goods, fame, child, and wife,
Though these all be gone,
Our vict'ry has been won;
The Kingdom ours remaineth.

RESPONSIVE PSALM

Psalm 46

Pastor: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
People: Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way,

Pastor: Though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam,
People: Though the mountains tremble at its swelling.

Pastor: There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
People: The holy habitation of the Most High.

Pastor: God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved;
People: God will help her when morning dawns.

Pastor: The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
People: He utters His voice, the earth melts.

Pastor: The Lord of hosts is with us;
People: The God of Jacob is our fortress.

Pastor: Come, behold the works of the Lord,
People: How He has brought desolations on the earth.

Pastor: He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
People: He breaks the bow and shatters the spear; He burns the chariots with fire.

Pastor: "Be still, and know that I am God.
People: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!"

Pastor: The Lord of hosts is with us;
People: The God of Jacob is our fortress.

ALL: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

JESUS LOVES ME | LSB 588

The congregation may be seated as all children are invited forward for a special message geared toward them.

1. Jesus loves me! This I know,
For the Bible tells me so.
Little ones to Him belong;
They are weak, but He is strong!

Refrain: Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me,
The Bible tells me so.

ANTHEM

WE ALL BELIEVE IN ONE TRUE GOD - CHRISTOPHER EVATT HANDBELL CHOIR

THE FIRST READING

ISAIAH 51:4-6

"Give attention to me, my people, and give ear to me, my nation; for a law will go out from me, and I will set my justice for a light to the peoples. My righteousness draws near, my salvation has gone out, and my arms will judge the peoples; the coastlands hope for me, and for my arm they wait. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and they who dwell in it will die in like manner; but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will never be dismayed.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord. People: Thanks be to God.

THE SECOND READING

ROMANS 3:19-28

Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it—the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord. People: Thanks be to God.

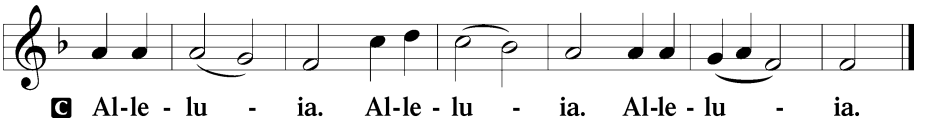
ALLELUIA



THE HOLY GOSPEL — JOHN 8:31-36

Pastor: Alleluia! Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness,
People: And all these things will be added to you. Alleluia! (Matthew 6:33)
Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the eighth chapter.
People: Glory be to Thee, O Lord!

So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." They answered him, "We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, 'You will become free'?" Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who practices sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

Pastor: This is the Gospel of the Lord. People: Praise to You, O Christ!

THE CONFESSION OF OUR CHRISTIAN FAITH — APOSTLES' CREED

I BELIEVE IN GOD

THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of heaven and earth.
AND IN JESUS CHRIST, His only Son, our Lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, the Holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting! Amen!

THE SERVICE OF THE SACRAMENT

As Preparation for Holy Communion

As a congregation, Holy Trinity believes, teaches, and confesses that the body and blood of Jesus Christ is truly present in, with, and under the bread and wine in the Lord's Supper, just as He said. These sacramental gifts are extended to believers for their forgiveness, life, and salvation. This holy meal is shared with those who have been baptized, taught according to our Lutheran understanding, confess this Christian truth, and have examined themselves as one in need of the Lord's grace. Those who are unprepared or who do not affirm this teaching are welcome to remain seated or come forward for a blessing; just indicate to the pastor that you are not communing. Gluten-free bread and non-alcoholic wine can be made available. Notify an usher if you would like the Lord's Supper to be brought to you in the pew.

PREFACE ~ Please stand.

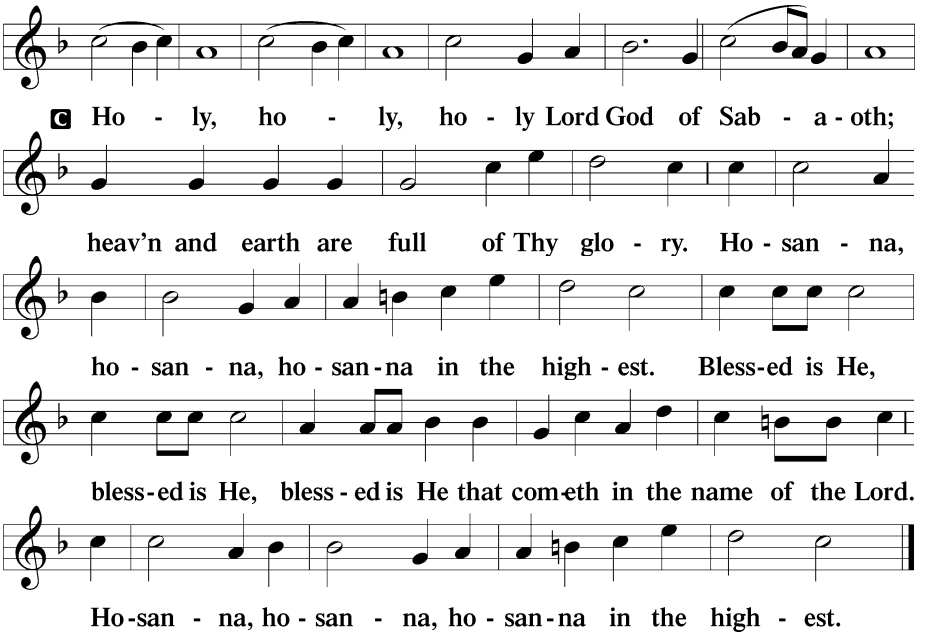
Pastor: The Lord be with you.
People: And with Thy spirit.
Pastor: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up unto the Lord.
Pastor: Let us give thanks unto the Lord our God.
People: It is meet and right so to do.
Pastor: It is truly meet, right, and salutary…evermore praising You and singing:

SANCTUS



LORD'S PRAYER

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Pastor: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to His disciples and said: "Take eat, this is My Body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me." In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: "Drink of it, all of you. This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

Pastor: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
People: And also with you.

JUST AS I AM, WITHOUT ONE PLEA | LSB 570
THOUGH ALL OUR LIFE IS LIKE A SCROLL | O&AR 266

1 Though all our life is like a scroll
Unrolled with blemished pages;
Though sin has shredded what was whole
And death is now our wages;
Yet here we stand in confidence,
With Jesus as our sole defense,
For He alone still saves us.

2 Though pompously we try to dress
In costumes of our making;
Though fig leaves of self-righteousness
Are futile and heartbreaking;
Yet filthy rags Christ gladly wore
So we would perish nevermore.
His grace alone still clothes us.

3 Though earth's deep waters foam and roar
As surging waves are rolling;
Though all the nations rage with war
While bells of doom are tolling;
Yet God gives peaceful fortitude,
He nurtures us with Heaven's food.
True faith alone still anchors.

4 Though critics cut out Scripture's claims
And treat them with derision;
Though they conduct their hostile aims
With scalpels of suspicion;
Yet how the living, two-edged sword
Proclaims the dead and risen Lord!
God's Word alone: still truthful.

5 Now sing a high doxology
To God who gives salvation.
Both here and in eternity
Let this be our vocation.
To Father, Son, and Spirit raise
A symphony of grateful praise,
For He alone is worthy.
